

YMC - Word to Music Competition 2023

Please write phrases or mini poems to the piece Charade:

You can write just one phrase (mini poem) or two. You can write something about YMC, or about the classes you do at YMC, or the people you meet. You can also write about the teachers, but please don't use any names, just the kind of teacher. You can also write anything about your instrument or just anything about music.

Please write your ideas directly under the notes in the score on the entry form and hand it either to Henry, Natasha or Marina the latest by the end of term on 25th March 2023. Don't forget to write your name at the top of the page.

You can listen to the piece via this link:

YMC will choose four winners. One phrase (mini poem) of each winner will be performed in the Summer End of Term Concert with Choir and Orchestra.

You can win music books, instrumental gadgets or useful music writing material.

Here is an example:

I want to prac-tise now---- there are so ma---ny

pie--ces----- play--ing it slow play-in it fast

now I can take a bow-----
